PARENT TEACHER INTERACTION

As teachers, parents and the school are equal partners in the growth and development of the students, it is advisable for the parents to maintain close contact with the school in order to secure the best results. Parental involvement will not only enrich the teacher-student bond, it will be a strong support system in the learning experience of the students.

1. Parents are advised to :

- a) use the school diary as a communicative link with the school regarding
 - the child's progress
 - any specific or general query
 - information about home work and tests
 - co-curricular activities
 - general rules and regulations
 - holidays
- b) attend Parent - Teacher Meetings held as per the schedule given in the diary (any change is informed).
- c) treat the report card for each term as an indicator of both academic progress and personality development.
- d) meet the class teacher, subject teacher or Principal with prior appointment before the school begins or as and when necessary.
- e) write to the school regarding any problem faced by the child.

ACTIVITIES AND COMPETITIONS

Co-Curricular Activities

All activities and competitions form an inherent part of the school curriculum. They help develop the overall personality of the students and bring out their hidden talents. They develop in the students a sense of keen responsibility, a systematic approach to work, a logical and analytical mind, leadership qualities and true sportsmanship.

Activities at SFS are divided into the following:

(a) Inter House Activities: The entire student body of SFS is divided into four Houses namely Kingfisher, Parakeet, Peacock and Skylark. Various competitions are organised to promote a healthy competitive spirit among the students. Students may take up any of the following activities:

- | | |

b) Inter-School Activities : Students participate in various inter-school activities. The school also hosts a number of such events through the course of the year.

c) Workshops / Seminars / Talks : These are organised for teachers and students to keep them abreast with the latest developments in the field of education and increase their awareness in areas of health and hygiene, environment, prevalent professions and stress management. Class XII students are exposed to various career counselling sessions.

d) Trips: Groups of students from all classes, escorted by teachers, visit places of interest in Delhi and other parts of the country. Such educational trips are organised to enhance awareness and knowledge of Indian culture and heritage among the students. The school provides opportunities for the students to learn from the pristine beauties of nature and be environmentally conscious of their surroundings. The field visits and educational excursions also develop in them a sense of adventure and achievement and, at the same time, they become confident and independent.
